Item 5. Other Events

On April 12, 1999, Ventas, Inc. ("Ventas" or the "Company") entered into a Second Standstill Agreement (the "Second Standstill Agreement") with Vencor, Inc. ("Vencor"), its principal tenant, pursuant to which each of the Company and Vencor agreed during a specified period of time (the "Standstill Period") not to pursue any claims against the other or any third party relating to the April 1998 reorganization of the Company or any claims relating to certain defaults under Vencor's lease agreements with the Company. On April 12, 1999, the Company and Vencor also entered into an agreement (the "Tolling Agreement") pursuant to which they agreed that any statutes of limitations or other time constraints in a bankruptcy proceeding that might be asserted by one party against the other would be extended or tolled from April 12, 1999 until a specified date or until the Second Standstill Agreement terminates due to Vencor's failure to make certain contemplated lease payments.

On August 5, 1999, Ventas announced that it entered into an amendment to the Second Standstill Agreement which provides for the payment of July rent on a specified schedule. The schedule is $5 million on August 5, $5 million on August 13, $5.2 million on August 19 and approximately $3.7 million on August 31. These payments, totaling approximately $18.9 million, represent the full amount of rent due for July under the lease agreements. If Vencor fails to pay any installment of July rent in accordance with the specified schedule, the Company will be entitled to exercise its remedies under its lease agreements with Vencor with respect to the late payment of July rent, unless Vencor or its bank lenders pay the full amount of unpaid July rent within five days of such non-payment.

The Amendment to the Second Standstill Agreement extends the Standstill Period. The Standstill Period will now terminate on the earliest to occur of September 3, 1999, any date that a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy case is commenced by or against Vencor, Vencor's failure to make full lease payments for July 1999 under the specified schedule described above or certain other specified events. As provided in the Amendment to the Second Standstill Agreement, the Company delivered to Vencor notice of non-payment of August rent. If Vencor or its bank lenders fail to pay the full amount of August rent on or prior to September 10, 1999, the Company will be entitled to terminate its lease agreements with Vencor.

In addition, the Company and Vencor agreed to extend the Tolling Agreement until the earlier to occur of September 3, 1999 or the termination of the Standstill Period as a result of Vencor's failure to make the July lease payments in accordance with the specified schedule described above or certain other specified events.

This Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). All statements regarding the Company's expected future financial position, results of operations, cash flows, financing plans, business strategy, expected lease income, plans and objectives of management for future operations and statements that include words such as "anticipate," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," and other similar expressions are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and stockholders must recognize that actual results may differ from the Company's expectations.

Factors that may affect the plans or results of the Company include, without limitation, (i) the ability of Vencor to restructure its obligations so that it will have the financial strength and liquidity necessary to satisfy their obligations and duties under leases and other agreements with the Company, (ii) the Company's success in implementing its business strategy, (iii) the nature and extend of future competition, (iv) the extent of future healthcare reform and regulation, including cost containment measures and changes in reimbursement policies and procedures, (v) increases in cost of borrowing for the Company, (vi) the ability of the Company's operators to deliver high quality care and to attract patients, (vii) the results of the ongoing investigation of the Company by the U.S. Department of Justice and other litigation affecting the Company, (viii) the Company's ability to acquire additional properties, (ix) changes in the general economic conditions and/or in the markets in which the Company may, from time to time, compete (x), the ability of the Company to pay down, refinance and/or restructure its indebtedness as it becomes due and (xi) the ability of the Company and Vencor and other third parties to replace, modify or upgrade computer systems in ways that adequately address the year 2000 issue. Many of such factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.

A copy of the Amendment to the Second Standstill Agreement and the Tolling Agreement and the press release issued by the Company on August 5, 1999 are included as exhibits to this filing and are incorporated herein by reference.

- (i) prior to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on each date set forth on Schedule I hereto, Vencor has not paid to Ventas, in immediately available funds, the amount set forth on Schedule I, representing a portion of the Rent due to Ventas under the Five Leases for the month of July 1999; or
 - (ii) prior to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on August 26, 1999 and on each Business Day thereafter to and including August 31, 1999, Vencor has not paid to Ventas the amount, if any, by which the sum of (x) Vencor's "total cash on hand and availability" as set forth on Vencor's receipts and disbursement reports determined in good faith and in accordance with Vencor's past reporting practices to Ventas and (y) to the extent not included in (x), Vencor's available revolving credit borrowings, exceeds $12 million as of the end of the immediately preceding Business Day; provided, however, that this subparagraph (ii) shall be of no further force and effect at such time as the total payments made by Vencor pursuant to this subparagraph (ii) equals $3,682,525.77 (the "Final Payment Amount"); for purposes of this agreement, "Business Day" means a day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which commercial banks are not required or

Final Payment Amount in favor of Vencor shall reduce the amount of the Final Payment Amount; provided, however, that such adjustment shall not exceed $1 million; and provided further, that if such claims are not so resolved or if the adjustment exceeds $1 million, the parties shall reserve their rights with respect to such claims; or

- (iii) prior to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on August 31, 1999, Vencor has not paid to Ventas, in immediately available funds, an amount equal to the Final Payment Amount (as adjusted pursuant to subparagraph (ii) above) less all payments made pursuant to subparagraph (ii) above; or
- (iv) prior to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on each Business Day of the Second Standstill Period occurring after August 5, 1999, Vencor has not provided to Ventas a daily cash flow statement for the month of August 1999 reflecting Vencor's daily and cumulative cash receipts, daily and cumulative cash disbursements and cash position and outstanding aggregate borrowings and availability under Vencor's Revolving Credit Facility, all as of the prior Business Day, and such failure continues for more than one Business Day after written demand therefor by Ventas, unless such required delivery is expressly waived in writing by Ventas within one Business Day of the time the report was otherwise due.

- (c) Ventas further agrees that, subject to the acceleration provisions provided for hereinbelow, if Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Five Leases) pays the Rent for the month of July 1999 in the installment amounts and within five (5) days of the installment dates provided for herein, then such payment shall be deemed to be a timely cure, within the meaning of Section 16.1 of the Five Leases and the July Non-Payment Notices, and that, in such event, no Event of Default (as that term is used in the July Non-Payment Notices and defined in the Five Leases) shall have occurred with respect to the late payment or non-payment of Rent for the month of July 1999. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Ventas shall not send a notice of termination pursuant to paragraph 16.1 of the Five Leases, or any of them, based upon Vencor's non-payment or late payment of Rent for the month of July 1999 so long as Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee has a right to cure or has cured such non-payment or late payment of Rent for the month of July 1999. In addition, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event Vencor shall fail to pay any installment amount hereunder on the original installment date specified herein, then that installment amount together with the balance of the unpaid Rent for July 1999 shall become immediately due and payable on and as of such date, without need for any further notice or demand, and Vencor's and the Leasehold Mortgagee's right to cure the non-payment or late payment of Rent for July 1999 is and shall be limited solely to the right during the five days after such installment date to pay the full amount of the total unpaid Rent for July 1999. This subparagraph 5(c)

shall only apply to the July Non-Payment Notices and to the non-payment or late payment of the July 1999 Rent under the Five Leases.

- (d) The Collateral Agent hereby confirms to Ventas and Vencor that it is the collateral agent for the Leasehold Mortgagee and that it is authorized to make the confirmations and agreements contained herein. Ventas, Vencor, and the Collateral Agent (for and on behalf of the Leasehold Mortgagee) confirm and agree that the period of time within which Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee is entitled to cure the failure of Vencor to pay Rent for the month of July 1999 under this agreement and the Five Leases in order to prevent a termination of the Five Leases will expire at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on the fifth day after the first to occur, if any, of the installment dates set forth above on which the prescribed installment amount of Rent is not timely paid.
- (e) Ventas, Vencor and the Collateral Agent hereby agree that (i) the June Non-Payment Notices, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits A through E, are hereby deemed for all purposes to have been given by Ventas and received by Vencor and the Collateral Agent as of June 6, 1999 without need for any further act or delivery by Ventas, (ii) the July Non-Payment Notices, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits F through J, are hereby deemed for all purposes to have been given by Ventas and received by Vencor and the Collateral Agent on and as of July 6, 1999, and (iii) the August Non-Payment Notices, which will be provided by Ventas and be substantially in the form of the July Non-Payment Notices, are to be attached hereto as Exhibits K through O, are hereby deemed for all purposes to have been given by Ventas and received by Vencor and the Collateral Agent on and as of August 5, 1999, without need for any further act or delivery by Ventas (except for delivery of Exhibits K through O).
- (f) Ventas further agrees that if Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee pays the Rent for the month of August 1999 on or before September 10, 1999, at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time, then such payment shall be deemed to be a timely cure, within the meaning of Section 16.1 of the Five Leases and the August Non-Payment Notices, and that, in such event, no Event of Default (as that term is used in the August Non-Payment Notices and defined in the Five Leases) shall have occurred with respect to the late payment or non-payment of Rent for the month of August 1999. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Ventas shall not send a notice of termination pursuant to paragraph 16.1 of the Five Leases, or any of them, based upon Vencor's non-payment or late payment of Rent for the month of August 1999 so long as Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee has a right to cure or has cured such non-payment or late payment of Rent for the month of August 1999. This subparagraph 5(f) shall only apply to the August Non-Payment Notices and to the non-payment or late payment of the August 1999 Rent under the Five Leases.

- (g) Ventas, Vencor, and the Collateral Agent (for and on behalf of the Leasehold Mortgagee) confirm and agree that the period of time by which Vencor or the Leasehold Mortgagee is entitled to cure the failure of Vencor to pay Rent for the month of August 1999 under this Amendment and the Five Leases in order to prevent a termination of the Five Leases will expire at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on September 10, 1999.

Amendment to Tolling Agreement

2. The first numbered paragraph of the Tolling Agreement shall be deleted and replaced with the following paragraph:

Any Vencor Claim, including, without limitation, those arising or available under the Bankruptcy Avoidance Provisions (defined below) that Vencor could otherwise assert against Ventas if Vencor were a debtor in a case under the Bankruptcy Code commenced on April 12, 1999, and whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code or under other applicable federal or state law, shall not be prejudiced, impaired, or waived by Vencor's failure to commence such a bankruptcy case, and any and all statutes of limitations, repose, or other legal or equitable constraints on the time by which such a bankruptcy case or pleading initiating any Vencor Claim (including, without limitation, a cause of action under ss. 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) shall be tolled during the period of time from April 12, 1999 to and including the earlier of (i) 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on September 3, 1999, or (ii) the earlier time and date on which the Second Standstill Period (as defined in the Second Standstill Agreement) shall automatically terminate as a result of Vencor's nonpayment or late payment of rent or failure to deliver certain reports (as provided for in paragraph 5 of the Second Standstill Agreement, the provisions of which are hereby incorporated by reference) (the "Tolling Period"). For all purposes herein, both the first and last day of the Tolling Period shall be deemed to be contained in the Tolling Period.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VENTAS AND VENCOR AGREE TO RENTAL PAYMENT SCHEDULE AND AMEND
STANDSTILL AND TOLLING AGREEMENTS

LOUISVILLE, KY. (August 5, 1999) -- Ventas, Inc. (NYSE:VTR) (the "Company") announced today that it has entered into an agreement with Vencor, Inc. (OTC:VCRI), its principal tenant, which provides for the payment of July rent on a specified schedule. The schedule calls for $5 million due August 5, $5 million due August 13, $5.2 million due August 19 and approximately $3.7 million due August 31. These payments, totaling approximately $18.9 million, represent the full amount of rent due for July under the lease agreements. If Vencor fails to pay any installment of July rent in accordance with the specified schedule, the Company will be entitled to exercise its remedies under its lease agreements with Vencor with respect to the late payment of July rent, unless Vencor or its bank lenders pay the full amount of unpaid July rent within five days of such non-payment.

So that the Company, Vencor and Vencor's bank lenders can continue their discussions regarding a global restructuring of Vencor's financial obligations, the Company and Vencor have agreed to amend the standstill agreement which the parties entered into on April 12, 1999. The amended standstill agreement will extend, until September 3, 1999, the obligations of each of the Company and Vencor to refrain from pursuing any claims against the other or any third party relating to the April 1998 reorganization or the Company's agreement not to exercise its remedies under its lease agreements with Vencor, other than its delivery of notice of non-payment of August rent. The standstill period will terminate on the earliest to occur of September 3, 1999, any date that a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy case is commenced by or against Vencor, Vencor's failure to make full lease payments for July 1999 under the specified schedule described above or certain other specified events. As provided in the amended standstill agreement, the Company has given Vencor notice of non-payment of August rent. If Vencor or its bank lenders fails to pay the full amount of August rent on or prior to September 10, 1999, the Company will be entitled to terminate its lease agreements with Vencor.

The Company and Vencor entered into similar agreements with respect to rental payments previously owed by Vencor for the months of May and June.

The Company and Vencor also agreed to renew an agreement between the parties that any statutes of limitations or other time constraints in a bankruptcy proceeding that might be asserted by one party against the other would be extended or tolled from April 12, 1999, until the earlier to occur of September 3, 1999 or the termination of the standstill period as a result of Vencor's failure to make the July lease payments in accordance with the specified schedule described above or certain other specified events.

The Company is a real estate company whose properties include 219 nursing centers, 45 hospitals, and eight personal care facilities operated in 36 states.

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and stockholders must recognize that actual results may differ from the Company's expectations.

Factors that may affect the plans or results of the Company include, without limitation, (i) the ability of the Company's operators, primarily Vencor, Inc., to maintain the financial strength and liquidity necessary to satisfy their obligations and duties under leases and other agreements with the Company and their existing credit agreements, (ii) the extent of future healthcare reform and regulation, including cost containment measures and changes in reimbursement policies and procedures, (iii) increases in the cost of borrowing for the Company, (iv) the ability of the Company's operators to deliver high quality care and to attract patients, (v) the ability of the Company to pay and/or refinance its indebtedness as it becomes due, (vi) the results of the ongoing investigation of the Company by the U.S. Department of Justice and other litigation affecting the Company, and (vii) the success of the Company in implementing its business strategy and the nature and extent of future competition. Many of such factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.
