Koppers Announces March 2007 Retirement of European Operations Executive

Company names James T. Dietz to replace retiring David Whittle as VP and General Manager of European Operations effective March 31, 2007

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31- Koppers Holdings Inc. (NYSE: KOP) today announced that Dr. David Whittle, Vice President & General Manager, European Operations, will be retiring effective March 31, 2007. Dr. Whittle, 64, has been responsible for European operations since Koppers acquired 100% ownership of the former Tarconord A/S entity (now known as Koppers Europe) in May 2000.

Koppers concurrently announced the appointment of James T. Dietz to replace Dr. Whittle effective March 31, 2007. Mr. Dietz, 50, has more than 21 years of experience in the coal tar distillation business, with a background in engineering and operations. Mr. Dietz is currently operations manager for Koppers' North American Carbon Materials & Chemicals business. In his new capacity, Mr. Dietz will report to Kevin J. Fitzgerald, who was recently named Senior Vice President, Global Carbon Materials & Chemicals.

Safe Harbor Statement

This news release may contain forward-looking statements based on management's current expectations, estimates and projections. All statements that address expectations or projections about the future, including statements about the company's strategy for growth, product development, market position, expected expenditures and financial results are forward-looking statements. Some of the forward-looking statements may be identified by words like "expects," "anticipates," "plans," "intends," "projects," "indicates," and similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Many factors, including those discussed more fully elsewhere in this release and in documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Koppers, particularly its latest annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly report on Form 10-Q, as well as others, could cause results to differ materially from those stated. These factors include, but are not limited to, changes in the laws, regulations, policies and economic conditions, including inflation, interest and foreign currency exchange rates, of countries in which the Company does business; competitive pressures; the loss of one or more key customer or supplier relationships; customer insolvencies; successful integration of structural changes, including restructuring plans, acquisitions, divestitures and alliances; cost and availability of raw materials; and other economic, business, competitive, regulatory and/or operational factors affecting the business of Koppers generally.
