NXP and Dover Provide an Update on the Timing of the Closing of the Sound Solutions Transaction

Eindhoven, the Netherlands, March 28, 2011. NXP Semiconductors N.V. (NASDAQ: NXPI) and Dover Corporation (NYSE: DOV) provide an update on the timing of the closing of the Sound Solutions transaction. A non-U.S. and non-EU governmental antitrust regulator has requested additional briefings in connection with its review of the sale of NXP's Sound Solutions business to Knowles Electronics, an affiliate of Dover Corporation. As a result, NXP and Dover Corporation currently expect the transaction to close around the middle of the second quarter of 2011, subject to regulatory approval. Apart from the antitrust procedure referred to above, all other closing conditions and actions have been completed in all material respects and are ready to be implemented. As before, there is no assurance that antitrust clearance will be obtained. NXP and Dover Corporation previously anticipated, subject to regulatory approvals and customary closing conditions, the transaction would likely close on or about the end of the first quarter of 2011.

Forward-looking Statements

This document includes forward-looking statements which include statements regarding our business strategy, financial condition, results of operations, and market data, as well as any other statements which are not historical facts. By their nature, forward-looking statements are subject to numerous factors, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected. These factors, risks and uncertainties include the following: market demand and semiconductor industry conditions, our ability to successfully introduce new technologies and products, the demand for the goods into which our products are incorporated, our ability to generate sufficient cash, raise sufficient capital or refinance our debt at or before maturity to meet both our debt service and research and development and capital investment requirements, our ability to accurately estimate demand and match our production capacity accordingly or obtain supplies from third-party producers, our access to production from third-party outsourcing partners, and any events that might affect their business or our relationship with them, our ability to secure adequate and timely supply of equipment and materials from suppliers, our ability to avoid operational problems and product defects and, if such issues were to arise, to correct them quickly, our ability to form strategic partnerships and joint ventures and successfully cooperate with our alliance partners, our ability to win competitive bid selection processes to develop products for use in our customers' equipment and products, our ability to successfully establish a brand identity, our ability to successfully hire and retain key management and senior product architects; and, our ability to maintain good relationships with our suppliers. In addition, this document contains information concerning the semiconductor industry and our business segments generally, which is forward-looking in nature and is based on a variety of assumptions regarding the ways in which the semiconductor industry, our market segments and product areas will develop. We have based these assumptions on information currently available to us, if any one or more of these assumptions turn out to be incorrect, actual market results may differ from those predicted. While we do not know what impact any such differences may have on our business, if there are such differences, our future results of operations and our financial condition could be materially adversely affected. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak to results only as of the date the statements were made. Except for any ongoing obligation to disclose material information as required by the United States federal securities laws, we do not have any intention or obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements after we distribute this document, whether to reflect any future events or circumstances or otherwise. For a discussion of potential risks and uncertainties, please refer to the risk factors listed in our SEC filings. Copies of our SEC filings are available from our Investor Relations website, <http://www.nxp.com/investor> or from the SEC website, <http://www.sec.gov>.
