Item 1.01. Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 22, 2016, Exterran Corporation (“Exterran” or the “Company”) entered into that certain First Amendment, Consent and Waiver to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the “First Amendment”) by and among Exterran Energy Solutions, L.P. (“EESLP”), the Company, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and the lenders party thereto. The First Amendment waives and modifies certain provisions under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of October 5, 2015 (the “Credit Agreement”), by and among EESLP, as borrower, the Company, as a guarantor, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and various financial institutions as lenders, as a result of the events described under Item 4.02 below related to the Company’s Belleli Energy subsidiary (“Belleli”) and its respective subsidiaries (including, without limitation, the need for the Company to restate its previously issued financial statements as described below).

Under the First Amendment, the lenders waive, among other things, (1) any potential event of default arising under the Credit Agreement as a result of the potential inaccuracy of certain representations and warranties regarding the Company’s prior period financial information and previously delivered compliance certificate for the 2015 fiscal year and (2) any requirement that EESLP or the Company make any representations and warranties as to the Company’s prior period financial statements and other prior period financial information. These waivers terminate on June 30, 2016, unless on or prior to that date, the Company delivers replacement financial information for its 2015 audited financial statements, together with a replacement compliance certificate demonstrating the Company’s compliance for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 with the financial covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement.

The First Amendment also extends to no later than June 30, 2016 the deadline by which the Company is required to deliver to the lenders its quarterly report for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2016 to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the related compliance certificate demonstrating compliance with the financial covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement.

The First Amendment also amends the Credit Agreement to, among other things:

- provide that LIBOR loans will bear interest at the adjusted LIBOR rate plus 2.75% and base rate loans will bear interest at the Base Rate plus 1.75% until June 30, 2016 (or, if earlier, the date we deliver replacement financial information for the Company’s 2015 audited financial statements, together with a replacement compliance); and
- add a condition precedent to the borrowing of loans that, after giving effect to the application of the proceeds of each borrowing, the Company’s consolidated cash balance (as defined in the First Amendment) will not exceed $30,000,000 plus certain other amounts.

The Company is not aware, and has not been made aware, that there has been any breach of representation, breach of covenant or event of default under the Credit Agreement. However, the Company believed it was prudent to obtain the waivers and consents contained in the First Amendment as a precautionary measure to allow for the orderly completion of the internal investigation described below.

As of March 31, 2016, the Company had approximately $190 million in outstanding borrowings and approximately $80 million in outstanding letters of credit under its revolving credit facility. As of that date, taking into account guarantees through letters of credit, the Company had undrawn capacity of approximately $410 million under its revolving credit facility.

The foregoing description of the First Amendment does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the First Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

During the preparation of its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2016, senior management of the Company identified possible errors relating to the application of percentage-of-completion accounting principles to specific engineering, procurement and construction (“EPC”) projects in the Middle East by its Belleli subsidiary during 2015. Belleli is headquartered in Mantova, Italy, and the Company’s Eastern Hemisphere operations are based in Dubai.

Management promptly reported the matter to the Audit Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors, which immediately retained counsel, who in turn retained a forensic accounting firm, to initiate an internal investigation.

On April 21, 2016, the Company's management and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors determined, based on the preliminary results of the internal investigation, that the Company's consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015 and related report of independent registered public accounting firm should no longer be relied upon as a result of material errors, and possible irregularities, relating to the accounting for certain Belleli EPC contracts. Accordingly, Exterran's consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015 will be restated.

While management believes the errors identified to date, related to Belleli's application of percentage-of-completion accounting principles to certain EPC projects in the Middle East, materially affect only the 2015 consolidated and combined financial statements, the Audit Committee's internal investigation remains ongoing, and it is possible that additional errors affecting other periods, including interim periods, could be identified. As a result, management has not determined whether any other financial statements should be restated or the amounts of any required adjustments to its previously reported financial statements. Following the completion of the internal investigation, the Company will file amended periodic reports for any periods being restated.

The Company's management and the Audit Committee have discussed the matters disclosed in this report with Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent accountants.

Exterran has notified the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange of the events described in this report.

6.1 The Administrative Agent shall have received from the Majority Lenders, the Borrower, and each Guarantor counterparts (in such number as may be requested by the Administrative Agent) of this First Amendment signed on behalf of such Persons.

6.2 The Administrative Agent shall have received a schedule in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent identifying the U.S. Accounts of the Loan Parties and indicating which of the U.S. Accounts is an Excluded Account.

6.3 The Borrower shall have paid to the Administrative Agent all other fees and other amounts due and payable on or prior to the First Amendment Effective Date, including, to the extent invoiced, reimbursement or payment of all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses required to be reimbursed or paid by the Borrower under the Credit Agreement.

6.4 No Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing as of the date hereof after giving effect to the terms of this First Amendment.

6.5 The Administrative Agent shall have received such other documents as the Administrative Agent (or its counsel) may reasonably request relating to the transactions contemplated by the First Amendment.

Section 7. Miscellaneous.

7.1 Confirmation. The provisions of the Credit Agreement, except as specifically waived or consented to above, or as amended by this First Amendment, shall remain in full force and effect following the effectiveness of this First Amendment. The amendments contemplated hereby shall not limit or impair any Liens granted by the Borrower or any other Loan Party to secure the Secured Obligations, each of which are hereby ratified, affirmed and extended to secure the Secured Obligations as they may be extended pursuant hereto.

7.2 Representations and Warranties.

(a) Ratification and Affirmation. The Borrower hereby: (i) acknowledges the terms of this First Amendment; (ii) ratifies and affirms its obligations under, and acknowledges, renews and extends its continued liability under, each Loan Document to which it is a party and agrees that each Loan Document to which it is a party remains in full force and effect, except as expressly amended hereby, after giving effect to the amendments contained herein; (iii) agrees that, from and after the First Amendment Effective Date, each reference to the Credit Agreement in the Security Instruments and the other Loan Documents shall be deemed to be a reference to the Credit Agreement, as amended by this First Amendment; and (iv) represents and warrants to the Lenders that as of the date hereof, after giving effect to the terms of this First Amendment, including the waivers and consents contained herein: (A) all of the representations and warranties made by the Borrower contained in each Loan Document to which it is a party are true and correct in all material respects (except that such materiality qualifier shall not be applicable to any representation or warranty that is already qualified or modified by materiality in the text thereof) on and as of the date hereof, except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly limited to an earlier date, in which case, such representations and warranties are true and correct in all material respects as of such specified earlier date; provided that no representations and warranties are made herein as to any Prior Financial Information; and (B) other than any Default or Event of Default that with respect to the Specified Potential Defaults and Related Potential Defaults, no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

(b) Corporate Authority; Enforceability; No Conflicts. The Borrower hereby represents and warrants to the Lenders that (i) it has all necessary power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this First Amendment; (ii) the execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of this First Amendment has been duly authorized by all necessary action on its part; (iii) this First Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that the enforceability thereof may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws generally affecting creditor's rights and by equitable principles (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law); (iv) the execution and delivery of this First Amendment by the Borrower and the performance of its obligations hereunder require no authorizations, approvals or consents of, or registrations or filings with, any Governmental Authority, except for those that have been obtained or made and are in effect; and (v) neither the execution and delivery of this First Amendment nor the transactions contemplated hereby will (A) contravene, or result in a breach of, the Organization Documents of the Borrower, (B) violate any Governmental Requirement applicable to or binding upon the Borrower or any of its Properties, except to the extent that any such violation, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or (C) violate or result in a default under any agreement or instrument to which the Borrower is a party (other than any agreement or instrument the contravention of which or breach of which could not reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to any Secured Party) or by which it is bound or to which its Properties are subject, except to the extent that any such violation or default, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Compliance with Financial Covenants. The Borrower hereby represents and warrants to Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders that, notwithstanding the occurrence of the events set forth on the Disclosure Statement and any restatement or adjustments to the Prior Financial Information, to the best knowledge of any Financial Officer of the Borrower as of the date this representation and warranty is made, Parent is in compliance with the financial covenants contained in Section 9.10 as of the last day of the Testing Period ended December 31, 2015 and as of the last day of the Testing Period ended March 31, 2016.

7.3 No Waiver. Neither the execution by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders of this First Amendment, nor any other act or omission by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders or their officers in connection herewith, shall be deemed a waiver by the Administrative Agent or the Lenders of any Default or Event of Default which may exist, which may have occurred prior to the date of the effectiveness of this First Amendment or which may occur in the future under the Credit Agreement and/or the other Loan Documents, except to the extent expressly set forth in this First Amendment. Similarly, nothing contained in this First Amendment shall directly or indirectly in any way whatsoever: (a) except for the waivers set forth herein, impair, prejudice or otherwise adversely affect the Administrative Agent's or any Lender's right at any time to exercise any right, privilege or remedy in connection with the Loan Documents with respect to any Default or Event of Default; (b) except as expressly provided herein, amend or alter any provision of the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents, or any other contract or instrument; or (c) constitute any course of dealing or other basis for altering any obligation of the Borrower or any right, privilege or remedy of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders under the Credit Agreement, the other Loan Documents or any other contract or instrument.

7.4 Loan Document. This First Amendment is a "Loan Document" as defined and described in the Credit Agreement and all of the terms and provisions of the Credit Agreement relating to Loan Documents shall apply hereto.

Disclosure Schedule

Parent is reviewing whether certain costs and expense estimates made in connection with certain projects undertaken by Belleli Energy S.r.l. and its Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Belleli Entities”) were either under-reported or reported during incorrect periods. The Belleli Entities are Restricted Subsidiaries of Parent.

The Belleli Entities account for their projects using the cost-to-total cost percentage-of-completion method of accounting. If it is ultimately determined that the costs and expenses referred to above should have been recognized in prior periods, the percentage-of-completion estimate of revenue on such projects would need to be adjusted to lower amounts in such prior periods.

The amount and timing of such costs and expenses, and the related adjustments to revenue for prior periods, are under review and cannot yet be quantified.

Exterran Corporation to Restate Consolidated and Combined Financial Statements for 2015Company Will Delay Filing of First Quarter 2016 Form 10-Q*

HOUSTON, April 26, 2016 - Exterran Corporation (NYSE: EXTN) (“Exterran” or the “Company”) today announced that it will restate its consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015. The Audit Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors has concluded, based on preliminary results of an internal investigation, that the Company did not properly account for certain items relating to its Belleli Energy subsidiary (“Belleli”), a non-core business, during fiscal 2015. Accordingly, the Audit Committee has determined that the Company’s previously issued consolidated and combined financial statements for 2015 and the related independent accounting firm report should no longer be relied upon.

During the preparation of its earnings report for the quarter ended March 31, 2016, Exterran’s senior management identified possible errors relating to accounting principles for specific engineering, procurement and construction (“EPC”) projects in the Middle East by Belleli during 2015. Management promptly reported the matter to the Audit Committee, which immediately retained counsel and a forensic accounting firm to initiate an internal investigation.

While the primary issue identified to date relates to Belleli’s accounting of certain EPC projects in the Middle East in 2015, the internal investigation remains ongoing and it is possible that additional errors materially affecting other periods could be identified. Exterran has not determined whether any other financial statements should be restated or the amounts of any required adjustments to its previously reported financial statements.

Andrew Way, Exterran’s President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, “We are working diligently to resolve this matter as soon as possible. We are committed to providing timely, accurate and transparent financial reporting and are working to ensure that we complete a comprehensive process. Importantly, the review is not expected to have any impact on the prospects of our core business and our cash generation remains strong. This is underscored by Exterran’s repayment of $95 million of debt during the first quarter of 2016, reducing total outstanding debt to $431 million as of March 31st.”

The Audit Committee review is ongoing and Exterran will continue to work with its advisors to conclude the internal investigation and restate its financials as soon as reasonably practicable. These matters have been discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company’s independent accountants.

As a result of the review, the Company anticipates filing a Form 12b-25, Notification of Late Filing, with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) relating to the Company’s report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2016.

Exterran has entered into an amendment to its credit agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as administrative agent, and various financial institutions as lenders, that waives potential events of default relating to these matters and extends through June 30, 2016 the time period for filing its restated 2015 audited financial statements and its Form 10-Q for first quarter of 2016. As of March 31, 2016, Exterran had approximately $190 million in outstanding borrowings and approximately $80 million in outstanding letters of credit under its revolving credit facility. As of that date, taking into account guarantees through letters of credit, the Company had undrawn capacity of approximately $410 million under its revolving credit facility.

Additional information relating to the expected restatement will be disclosed in one or more subsequent Forms 8-K, which will be filed with the SEC in due course.
