Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(d) On September 14, 2017, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of ICF International, Inc. (the “Company”) increased the size of the Company’s Board from seven (7) to eight (8) members and appointed Mr. Randall Mehl to the Board. Mr. Mehl shall serve as a Class III director to serve until the Company’s annual meeting of the stockholders in 2018, subject to his prior death, resignation or removal from office as provided by law. Mr. Mehl has been designated a member of the Compensation Committee of the Board.

Mr. Mehl currently serves as president and chief investment officer for Stewardship Capital Advisors, a private equity investment firm focused on the business and technology services sectors. Prior to that, he served as partner and managing director for Baird Capital Partners, where he led the company’s U.S. technology and services investment team. During his 20-years at Baird, Mr. Mehl focused heavily on acquisitions and late-stage growth investments in the business services sector and was involved in the analysis, acquisition and sale of more than 50 publicly-traded companies.

Mr. Mehl currently serves on the Board of KForce Inc., a publicly-traded professional staffing firm, and has previously held board positions with many privately held companies, including Myelin, a marketing services business, Workforce Insight LLC, a provider of workforce optimization solutions, and MedData LLC, now a subsidiary of MEDNAX, a provider of revenue cycle management solutions. He has also served on the investment committee for several private equity funds affiliated with Baird Capital.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Mehl and any other person pursuant to which he was appointed as a director of the Company. In connection with his service, Mr. Mehl will receive the Company’s standard director’s compensation package for 2017 received by the Company’s current non-employee directors, as discussed in the Company’s Proxy Statement filed on April 21, 2017, prorated for the time he serves during 2017. Mr. Mehl does not have any other current or proposed material arrangements or transactions with related person to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

The press release containing this announcement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

FAIRFAX, Va. (September 14, 2017) — ICF (NASDAQ:ICFI), a consulting and technology services provider to commercial and government clients around the world, has elected Randy Mehl, CFA to its board of directors, the company announced today. Mehl brings over two decades of experience in investing in and growing professional services companies to ICF as the company continues its positive growth momentum.

Mehl is president and chief investment officer of Stewardship Capital Advisors, LLC, which manages an equity fund focused on making investments in business and technology services. He previously served as a managing director and partner with Baird Capital, a middle-market private equity group, where he led the team focused on business and technology services. Mehl was nationally recognized as a senior equity research analyst during his time with Robert W. Baird & Company, covering business and technology services, including consulting, business process outsourcing, and staffing.

“Randy is an excellent addition to our board,” said Sudhakar Kesavan, ICF chairman and CEO. “He is a collaborative leader who not only understands how investors look at professional services companies, but also the key strategic levers we need to pull in order to effectively scale.”

Mehl currently serves on the board for Kforce Inc., a publicly-traded professional staffing firm, and has held previous board positions with many privately held companies, including Myelin, a marketing services business, Workforce Insight, a provider of workforce optimization solutions, and MedData (now a subsidiary of MEDNAX), a provider of revenue cycle management solutions. He also served on the investment committee for several private equity funds affiliated with Baird Capital.

“I’m honored and excited to join the ICF team,” said Mehl. “This passionate and talented team has grown the business tremendously over the past several years while maintaining a culture of innovation. I am excited to be part of the continued evolution of ICF.”

One of the world’s leading consultancies, ICF works with companies in critical markets and governments all over the world to plan, design, and implement transformative projects. Over 5,000 business analysts, policy specialists, technologists, researchers, digital strategists, social scientists and creatives across 70 countries support hundreds of organizations. For nearly 50 years, ICF has stayed relevant by taking non-traditional approaches to some of the most pressing challenges facing their clients.
