Rayonier Advanced Materials Expects $7 Million Net Income and $12 Million Pro Forma EBITDA Impact from Hurricane Irma

Jacksonville, Fla., September 19, 2017 - Rayonier Advanced Materials Inc. (NYSE:RYAM) announced today that operations at its Fernandina Beach, Fla. and Jesup, Ga. facilities are back running at full capacity after an orderly shutdown of operations due to Hurricane Irma. Due to the production interruption and the costs to restart operations, the Company expects a $6 million impact to Net Income and a $9 million impact to Pro Forma EBITDA. Additionally, the Company expects a $1 million impact to Net Income and a $3 million impact to Pro Forma EBITDA from reduced sales volumes as a result of shipment delays. As a result, the Company now forecasts full year Net Income of approximately $31 million and Pro Forma EBITDA at or slightly below the bottom end of our original $190 to $200 million guidance.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this document regarding anticipated financial, business, legal or other outcomes including business and market conditions, outlook and other similar statements relating to Rayonier Advanced Materials' future events, developments, or financial or operational performance or results, are "forward-looking statements" made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and other federal securities laws. These forward-looking statements are identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "estimate," "believe," "intend," "forecast," "anticipate," "guidance," and other similar language. However, the absence of these or similar words or expressions does not mean a statement is not forward-looking. While we believe these forward-looking statements are reasonable when made, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or events and undue reliance should not be placed on these statements. Although we believe the expectations reflected in any forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, we can give no assurance these expectations will be attained and it is possible actual results may differ materially from those indicated by these forward-looking statements due to a variety of risks and uncertainties.

Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: competitive pressures in the markets in which we operate, especially with respect to increases in supply and pressures on demand for our products, which impact
