Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 29, 2018, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The Macerich Company (the "Company") elected Ms. Peggy Alford to the Board. Ms. Alford has been appointed to the Audit Committee of the Board, and will be included in the Company's slate of nominees for election to the Board at the 2018 annual meeting of stockholders. Ms. Alford's election to the Board fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Fred S. Hubbell described below.

As a non-employee director, Ms. Alford will participate in the Company's compensation and benefit programs for all non-employee directors of the Company as described in the Company's Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on April 18, 2017. The Company intends to enter into its standard form indemnification agreement with Ms. Alford. There are no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Alford and any other person pursuant to which Ms. Alford was selected as a director, nor are there any transactions subject to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K in which the Company is a participant and Ms. Alford has a material interest.

Also on March 29, 2018, Fred S. Hubbell, having served as a member of the Board since 1994, resigned from the Board. As announced on August 9, 2017, Mr. Hubbell had at that time stepped down from the position of lead director due to the expected demands from his recently announced gubernatorial campaign in the State of Iowa and was replaced in that role by Steven Hash, who joined the Board as an independent director in late May 2015. Mr. Hubbell has now decided to resign from the Board in order to focus his time and attention on his gubernatorial campaign and its increasing demands as the June primaries and November election approach. His decision is not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices. The Board thanks Mr. Hubbell for his many years of valuable service.

A copy of the Company's press release announcing the appointment of Ms. Alford is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Macerich Announces Appointment of Peggy Alford to Board of Directors

SANTA MONICA, Calif., March 30, 2018 – The Macerich Company (NYSE: MAC), today announced that its Board of Directors has appointed Peggy Alford to the Board. Ms. Alford will also be nominated to stand for election to the Board at the Company's 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The appointment of Ms. Alford as an independent director continues the Company's ongoing Board refreshment program. Ms. Alford is the sixth new director added to the Board since 2013. Ms. Alford will be filling the seat previously held by Fred Hubbell, who has resigned from the Board in order to focus on his gubernatorial campaign in Iowa. The Board thanks Mr. Hubbell for his many years of valuable service.

Ms. Alford will bring to the Macerich Board strong digital expertise and a track record of driving growth and innovation through data analytics. She currently serves as Chief Financial Officer of the Chan Zuckerberg Initiative, a philanthropic organization founded in December 2015 that brings together world-class engineering, grant-making, impact investing, policy, and advocacy work. Ms. Alford previously held a variety of senior executive positions at PayPal, Inc., including Chief Financial Officer of the Americas, Global Credit and Global Products; Senior Vice President, Head of Human Resources, People Operations and Global Head of Cross Border Trade; and Chief Operating Officer, Asia Pacific. Prior to joining PayPal, Inc., Ms. Alford worked at former eBay subsidiary, Rent.com, a national internet listing service that enables renters to find rental properties online. At Rent.com, Ms. Alford served in a variety of roles with increasing responsibilities, including President, General Manager and Chief Financial Officer.

Mason Ross, the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of Macerich, stated, "As part of our ongoing program to further enhance the Board's skills, expertise and diversity, we conducted a thorough process with the assistance of a leading search firm. Peggy is a proven executive with an outstanding track record of driving digital transformation and growth, and she has significant experience leading complex businesses. We are delighted to welcome Peggy to the Board and look forward to benefitting from her experience and fresh perspectives. The Macerich Board and management team remain focused on positioning Macerich's centers as attractive settings for retailers as the new town squares and downtowns, delivering unique experiences for shoppers and enhanced value for stockholders."

"Macerich has a leading portfolio of irreplaceable assets in the country's most desirable markets, a clear strategy to transform retail properties into high-performing destinations, and is a recognized leader in sustainability. I am honored by the opportunity to join the Macerich Board and look forward to enhancing value for the benefit of all of the Company's stockholders and other stakeholders," said Ms. Alford.
