Douglas Peacock, TransDigm Co-Founder, to Move into Director Emeritus and Strategic Consultant Role

CLEVELAND, October 26, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- TransDigm Group Incorporated (NYSE: TDG) announced today that as part of its ongoing succession planning process, Mr. Douglas Peacock has offered to retire and become a Director Emeritus of the Company. Consequently, Mr. Peacock will not stand for re-election at the Company's 2019 Annual Shareholder Meeting. The TransDigm Board of Directors has agreed to accept Mr. Peacock's retirement and create the role of Director Emeritus. The change will be effective immediately following the 2019 Annual Shareholder Meeting. As Director Emeritus, Mr. Peacock will not have any voting rights but will have the right to attend all board meetings. Mr. Peacock will also be available to the Company for consultation regarding key business and strategic matters.

Mr. Peacock has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Company for 25 years - since the founding of the business in 1993. He was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of TransDigm Inc. from its formation until 2001 and Chairman until 2003.

Mr. Howley, Executive Chairman of TransDigm, stated, "Doug and I founded TransDigm in 1993. Doug has been a major driving force behind the performance and culture of the Company since its inception. Doug has been both a mentor and partner to me for my entire TransDigm career. I, along with the entire Board of Directors, am delighted that he has agreed to continue in his new role and offer ongoing advice and guidance."
