Quantum Announces Streamlined and Refreshed Board of Directors

John Fichthorn Added to Board and Adalio Sanchez and Alex Pinchev Retire

SAN JOSE, Calif. — April 11, 2019 — Quantum Corp. (OTCPK:QMCO) today announced that its Board of Directors has appointed John A. Fichthorn to join the Board.

Mr. Fichthorn has served since April 2017 as head of Alternative Investments for B. Riley Capital Management, L.L.C., which is an SEC-registered investment advisor and wholly-owned subsidiary of B. Riley Financial, Inc. (“B. Riley”). B. Riley is currently the Company’s largest stockholder and owns approximately 17% of the Company’s outstanding shares based on its most recent filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

“We welcome John to the Board for the wealth of financial experience he brings as well his investor perspective on excellence in execution,” said Quantum CEO and Board Chairman Jamie Lerner. “This is an opportune time for John to join us to bolster our engagement with shareholders as we continue our work to complete the restatement.”

Quantum also announced that Board members Alex Pinchev and Adalio Sanchez resigned from their positions on the Board, after completing nearly two years of service, including Mr. Sanchez’s service as interim CEO. “Both Alex and Adalio have been valuable members of the Board during an intensive transformation of our company,” said Lerner. Lerner continued, “As we continue to streamline our Board, we want to express our gratitude to them for their insights and strategic leadership, in particular Adalio’s role as interim-CEO in initiating Quantum’s transformation when it was in need of significant leadership. The hard work that was done over the past two years when Alex and Adalio were involved provided a solid foundation for our future growth.”

Investors are invited to read the Company’s Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 10, 2019 and April 11, 2019, for a further description of these events.
