OWENS-ILLINOIS COMPLETES SALE OF HARBOR CAPITAL ADVISORS

Toledo, Ohio, June 8, 2001 -- Owens-Illinois, Inc., (NYSE: OI) today announced that it has completed the previously announced sale of its Harbor Capital Advisors business to Robeco Groep N.V. Harbor Capital Advisors is the adviser to the Harbor Fund family of mutual funds and the adviser to the pension funds of several companies, including Owens-Illinois.

As announced previously, total consideration for the sale is $490 million. Excluding fees, expenses, and escrowed amounts to cover certain contingencies, approximately $455 million was received at closing. Owens-Illinois will use those cash proceeds to reduce the principal amount of its $1.5 billion senior secured term loan, which has a maturity date of March 31, 2004.

Joseph H. Lemieux, Owens-Illinois chairman and chief executive officer, said, "This transaction will enable us to maintain our long-standing focus on our core businesses in glass and plastics packaging. At the same time, we will have a significant ongoing relationship with Harbor Capital Advisors."

Based in the Netherlands, Robeco Groep is one of the world's largest third-party asset managers. As a unit of Robeco, Harbor Capital Advisors will maintain its previous responsibilities with respect to the Harbor Fund and also will continue to have responsibility for advising the pension funds of Owens-Illinois and others.

Harbor Capital Advisors was formed in 1983 as a wholly owned subsidiary of Owens-Illinois. It oversees assets of approximately $17 billion, which includes approximately $14 billion under management in the Harbor Funds. Harbor Fund began offering shares to the public in 1986. It has grown from a single domestic equity fund to a comprehensive family of 12 funds with more than 120,000 accounts.
