Charter Selects Carl Vogel as President and CEO

New Chief Executive Brings 20 Years of Telecommunications Experience

ST. LOUIS -- Charter Communications, Inc. (Nasdaq: CHTR) today announced that its Board of Directors has selected Carl Vogel as the Company's new President and Chief Executive Officer effective immediately. Mr. Vogel also has been named a member of Charter's Board of Directors and its Executive Committee.

In making the announcement, Paul Allen, Chairman of the Board of Directors, said, "I'm delighted we were able to attract someone with Carl's ability, experience and expertise to serve as Charter's new President and CEO. Carl shares my vision that cable represents the premier medium for delivering an array of advanced broadband services to consumers."

"With the addition of Carl, Charter has one of the strongest and most experienced management teams in the cable business," Mr. Allen continued. "I'm truly excited about Charter's prospects and look forward to his coming to St. Louis to work with COO Dave Barford, CFO Kent Kalkwarf, and the rest of the talented Charter management team for many years to come."

"I appreciate the vote of confidence that Paul and the other Charter Board members have shown by giving me this opportunity," Mr. Vogel said. "Charter is a great company with a strong management team. I look forward to working with all employees. My challenge is to build on that success and, along with my new colleagues, to bring the full spectrum of advanced broadband services to our customers as we fulfill our vision of the Wired World(TM)."
